Returning for its 17th season with celebrated pianist Anne-Marie McDermott as Artistic Director and ready to share this exceptional season with a remarkable group of artists who will be bringing to life the finest chamber music repertoire, including the world premiere of a work written just for Ocean Reef!

Joining Anne-Marie is the Grammy nominated Dover Quartet. Members Joel Link and Bryan Lee on violin, Julianne Lee on viola and Camden Shaw on cello will be appearing the first night at the Anglers Club.

Also debuting at the festival is double bass player Xavier Foley. Patrons of the festival will experience a work written by Mr. Foley just for the Ocean Reef Chamber Music Festival to be premiered at the concert at Card Sound Golf Club. Performing this exciting new work will be the composer himself, pianist Anne-Marie McDermott and members of the Dover Quartet.

This year's festival will present chamber music classics like Schubert's Trout Quintet and an evening of Chopin's most treasured piano pieces in a solo concert featuring Anne-Marie McDermott at the Ocean Reef Chapel. The final matinee Concert will be held at the Cultural Center on Sunday, January 28.
